New Publications.

The Great Philadelphia Monthly. GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE for JANUARY, O 1853, is now published and for sale at the cheap Book, Magazine, and Publishing Establishment of DEWITT & DAVENPORT, Tribune Buildings, Nassau-st.

This number commences the 42d volume of GRAHAM'S AMERICAN MONTHLY MAGAZINE, a book always eminently successful, and now in the very noontide of its popularity. The most extraordinary success has attended the work from its foundation, and it is now read more widely than any other American periodical. No expense is spared either in the purchase of original articles, or in the execution of its illustrations; and it may safely be affirmed that Graham has paid more money to American talent than any or all the other Magazines put together.

THE JANUARY NUMBER IS A GEM. The press from or end of the Union to the other are now speaking of its ex-traordinary beauty and merit, and with one accord admit that Graham is without a rival in the field he occupies. SINGLE NUMBERS 25 CENTS, or THREE DOLLARS A YEAR.

TWO COPIES ONE YEAR, FIVE DOLLARS.

FIVE COPIES ONE YEAR, FIVE DOLLARS.

All persons on subscribing to GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE for one year and paying THREE DOLLARS for the same, shall receive ONE DOLLAR'S worth of any of DEWITT & DAVENPORT'S popular publications, gratis, as a premium. Call and look at the January number.

Beakvallers New Accept and Ill others will be sampled.

Booksellers, News Agenta, and all others will be supplied at Publisher's prices. Call and subscribe at the old established store of DEWITT & DAVENPORT, Tribune Buildings, Nassau-st.

THE ROMANCE of the REVOLUTION;
a History of the Personal Adventures, Heroic Exploitr, and Romantic Incidents as enacted in the War of Independence. One extra large royal volume, elegantly Illus trated, in muslin. Price $1 50; elegant gilt sides and edges'

This volume possesses a romantic interest, in being the calculated to promote a better knowledge of the spirit that pervaded that era, than can be derived from almost any other source. It has all the freshness and interest of a romance, with the strict truth of history. No similar volume has ever been published, and it therefore contains much historical and entertaining knowledge relative to the Revolution which, from never appearing heretofore in a permanent form, is new to the great body of the people.
